The National Grand Army of the Republic Breaks Through Previous Records in the Rapid Transaction of Business-The Election of Officers in Many Instances Closely Contested-Prepared to Shake Hands with Their Old Enemies in 1895.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 13.

REAKING all previous records in beginning and ending its business within two days, the twenty-sighth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic adjourned sine die tonight. A year from next Monday the boys in blue, crossing Mason and Dixon's line for the first time in the history of the order, will fraternize with their opponents of the sixties and thus make visible demonstration of the oft repeated assertion that there is no longer a north or a south, but one country, free and undivided. And if but a tithe of the pledges and promises made by the visiting Kentuckians are redeemed, the encampment of '95 will never be forgotten either by the union or Confederate veterans that are fortunate enough to be among the partici-

BAKER BALLOT LAW.

Attorney General Hensel's Opinion Regarding Section 3.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 13 -Attorney General Hensel has given the secretary of the commonwealth an opinion regarding a construction of third clause of section 3 of the Baker ballot law, which requires nomination paper to be signed by at leasf 2 per cent, of the largest entire vote for any officer elected at the last preceding

He says the law means just what it says and that the election for congressman-at-large in any particular district cannot be made the basis of district nominations. The opinion was given because of a question raised by the chairman of the People's party as to whether the vote of 1892 or February 1894 should be the basis of computa-

SENATE SUGAR CASES.

Demurrers of Brokers Chapman and McCartney to Be Argued on Sept. 28.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 -- On Sept. 28 the demurrers of brokers, Elverton R. Chapman, of New York, and John MaCartney, of this city, to the indictments charging them with unlawfully refusing to answer questions before the senate sugar investigating committee, will be argued in the district of Columbia criminal court. The arguments will be on constitutional grounds - that is, the contention will be that the senate committee had no power to compel witlesses to answer questions. In the event that the demurrers are sustained no further action will be taken in the matter, as the government has not the right of appeal in a criminal case.
Should the decision of the court be gainst the defendants, the cases will be carried to the court of appeals, and the matter will go to the supreme court of the United States.

J. W. Shriver, of the New York Mail and Express, and E J Edwards, W. Shriver, of the New York the New York correspondent of a Philadelphia paper, have also been in-dicted for the same reasons as the two brokers. The newspaper men have filed demurrers to the indictments, but they will not be argued until some action is taken in the other cases. Should Messrs. Chapman and McCartney succeed in having the indictments against them quashed, those against Messrs. Shriver and Edwards may never come

The cases of the other two recalcitrant senate committee witnesses, President Henry O. Havemeyer and Secretary John E. Searles, of the American Sugar Refining company, were certified to the grand jury by Vice President Stevenson last August, and witnesses have appeared and have given testimony. The grand jury met this week for the fall term, and indictments may now be expected against Messrs. Havemeyer and Searles at any time.

The district attorney today said that there was no disposition on the part of the government to nolle prosse these cases. On the contrary, he said, the government would prosecute the matter with all possible vigor.

Pittston's Council Decides to Pave Main Street with Sheet Asphalt.

THE VOTE STANDS SEVEN TO ONE The Boy Stolen on the Street at Putnam

Councilman Tigue Sheds Light on the Manner in Which the Decision Was Reached, and It Is Probable That Some of the Financial Brokers of this morning in a public street while That Town Will Be Called Upon to on his way to school, by two men in a carriage, who drove towards the Mas-Explain Matters in Court.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

PITTSTON, Pa., Sept. 13.
FTER two months of flatulent wrangling and recrimination, the council of this borough to night came to a temporary conclusion with reference to street paving. By a vote of 7 to 1 it was decided to award the contrast for 44,000 square yards of new paving to the Barber Asphalt company. The contract calls for more than this; but 44,000 square yards are what the borough will have to pay for. They will have to pay at the rate of $2.24 per square yard, if to-night's action stands. But its standing is in doubt. Those who know, intimate that before the job is ended some members will be lying prostrate "outside the breastworks," if not clad in stripes. Councilman Dennelly led the as-phalt forces. His resolution to award the contract to the Barber company called forth a spirited debate, but it was carried by the votes of Donnelly, Reap, Clifford, Lynett, Knowles and Patrick Maloney, the member from Oregon. Councilman Hennigan, seeing resistance was useless, voted aye also. President Maugan voted nay. Conneilman Kearney refrained from committing himself, and Councilman Tigue was absent with the firemen who went to Wilkes-Baere during the day. MONEY FREELY OFFERED. The Citizens' Advisory committe, which has encouraged the street paving reform through all its devious procosses, on Wednesday afternoon almost unanimously recommended the selection of vitrified brick. Public sentiment, too, as nearly as can be ascer-tained, is in favor of brick pave. But brick pave was not adopted, despite the fact that it was the council's original choice. Councilman Tigne, the enegetic proword at Wilkes-Barre how things were going and took the first car back. He reached the council room too late to vote, but when the vote was an-nounced, he said, in front of Glick's drug store, and in the presence of R. B. Cutler, John Connell, Charles Curry, School Director M. J. Brennau, J. M. Fany and more than a score of others, that he had intended to vote for the lowest reliable vitrified brick bid, as a matter of public duty; but that, had he cared to have accepted bribes, he could have made a good sum of money by voting for asphalt.

TIQUE GROWS SPECIFIC. "Within the past few days," continued Mr. Tigue, "I was approached by a representative of the asphalt company who offered me $500 spot cash for my vote and said 'ther'd be more in it' if his side carried. At another time a fellow councilman, whose name I am prepared to give to the proper parties, offered me $900 to vote for ashalt, and said that there would be $1,000 in it only that $100 had to be given to a certain third party. Further than that, I was offered $500 by a prominent mau to vote for the Hollowood brick pave. This man is a borough official and I am prepared to make my affilavit, stating the full names, if it is desired.

These names are in The Tribune's possession. They are witheld pending the drawing up of papers necessary to a rigid investigation. That money was used on council would seem to be a reasonable inference from this testimony; but positive proof will be placed in the proper hands before many days and a turning of the calcium light may be expected.

The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the situation in Sattimore and several arrests have been sugar, but turned out to be a straight Republican meeting got up by the bolt-ers in order to organize the party in the First congressional district. Two special trains were run down from New Orleans, and the ride, to friends, was free. The meeting was lively, James Wilkinson, brother of the collector of the port and a bolting planter, addressed the meeting, coming out squarely for the Republican party.
